"URBAN IMAGES IN WATERCOLOR"

WWW.AAFINEARTS.COM

The theme for this workshop is "Urban Images in Watercolor". Urban images is an ideal subject matter to paint because the images are readily available wherever one lives. It can be a favorite street, a row of houses, or buildings, or perhaps a familiar store front or outdoor eatery. The inclusion of cars, or people is optional. In this workshop the participants will learn a bit about perspective, design, and composition, and primarily how to use value, color unity, and textures to create an attractive painting, participants will also learn to paint with the white of the paper to create light.
